

TWO STATES REPORT COMPLETE RETURNS

Delaware, Vermont and District of Columbia Only Ones to Give Full Counts

SLACKERS SEEM FEW

Regulations Which Will Govern Exemptions Already Virtually Complete

CROWDER OUTLINES PLAN

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Two states, Delaware and Vermont, and the District of Columbia had reported complete returns on yesterday's war registration when the provost marshal general's office closed tonight at 11 o'clock. Unofficial returns received, however, were sufficient to show that millions of young men await the call to arms in the nation's hour of grave peril.

The first reports showed that the census bureau estimates of eligibles had not been compiled, but officials pointed out that the numbers by which one or two cities had exceeded the estimates would wipe out the entire deficiency of the several smaller states sending in the first official returns. In some of these cities registration still was in progress today, the attorney general having approved the action of the Provost Marshal General Crowder in authorizing an extension of time.

Until the records of the manufacturing sections are completed the results of the registration cannot be judged accurately.

Messages from governors all over the country showed that there are relatively few slackers and already the machinery of the government is working to bring these few to reckoning.

General Crowder and the forces of the department of justice place full reliance in the people themselves in bringing forward these slackers. No man skulking in temporary safety because he is a stranger in his community, because his age is not known will escape. It is upon the men and women whose sons or other kin have faced the issue with courage and cheerfully recorded their names that the government chiefly depends to bring slackers in to the open. The work of preparing for the next great step proceeded tonight without interruption.

Exemption Rules Complete
Already the regulations which will govern exemptions are virtually complete. It is probable that a few days will see them duly promulgated by President Wilson and the work of assembling the exemption boards in each community under way. The personal honor of the President, of Secretary Baker and of every member of congress who voted for the bill stands pledged to the statement that even-handed justice and fairness to all men, high or low, black or white, will govern in the great task.

Much must be done before the names of those who will compose the armies can be enrolled. Millions of registration cards must be examined and classified. Those who are wholly unfit physically must be eliminated; the quotas of the states must be assigned; the machinery for distributing this quota equally thru every remote county or precinct of each state must be perfected. Assurance has been given that a man's own neighbors will be the judges to pass upon his case. There were more than 125,000 precincts and equal decentralization will characterize the exemption machinery.

President Wilson, upon whom the law imposes the duty of selecting and appointing all these boards, probably will delegate this duty to state officials.

To Name Boards of Review
Then comes the appointment of the boards of review to which each man who may be chosen by his local board for army duty, may carry his case if he feels himself wronged. These, broadly speaking, will be created for each federal judicial district. There is no statement yet available as to the process by which men will be drawn to appear before the exemption boards. Secretary Baker has stated that something in the nature of "jury wheel" might be employed, but beyond that no information has been given out. Reports today from all parts of the country bore out previous indications that the great enterprise had been carried thru without objection or opposition from a sufficient number of citizens to be worthy of mention.

Registration was completed virtually without disorder, certainly with only a small part of the disturbances which usually characterize national elections.

Gen. Crowder Outlines Plan
General Crowder tonight outlined what is to follow the great enactment: "Registration marks the completion of the first step in the execution of the selective service law."

ADV. CLUBS PLEDGE PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN

Pledge 427 Pages to Red Cross and Liberty Loan

Will Either Buy Space Direct or Induce Merchants to Buy It—Department Sessions Continue—Discuss Advertising of Religion.

St. Louis, Mo., June 6.—Advertising clubs of forty-two cities today pledged publicity for the campaign to raise $100,000,000 for the red cross and to finish the campaign for the liberty loan. The clubs pledged pages of newspaper space for either to buy this space direct or to induce merchants to buy it in the respective cities to buy it. A total of 427 pages was subscribed. This action was taken at a session of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World this afternoon.

Departmental sessions continued today, Rev. R. V. Johnson of Evansville, Ind., addressed the Church Advertising department of the Advertising of religion.

"The problem of advertising religion," he said, "is to convince the public that the religion so universally desired by the human heart is to be found in the church. Men have been looking for religion in the lodges and have found some there. They have looked for it in labor unions and in socialist brotherhoods. In the upshot societies are deep enthusiasts that have a religious quality. The church has failed to convince many of these peoples that the home of religion is the church."

"Advertising is to be directed toward this end, to win the people to the belief that the church is the most religious of our various forms of human association."

"The announcement of services by ministers ranges thru the whole gamut of advertising amateurism. One man betrays that he is the Rev. Mr. Dry-as-Dust by the way he tells us about next Sunday morning's service. Another thinks to win favor by the flippancy and irrelevancy of his announcement."

"What the churches have not yet learned to do in an adequate way is to advertise for new members. Advertising is group selling and evangelism is group conversion."

In addressing the conference on export advertising Benjamin Labree, chairman of the export division of the advertising club of New York of the trade combinations formed by business men in other countries and especially in Germany. Some of these combinations included so many lines that they could sell a Chinaman a five-cent fly with equal facility. Under the Webb bill now pending in Congress such combinations would be permitted he said.

"The American business man," he said, "must determine what form these combinations shall take—whether loosely organized movements, more closely organized leagues with combined selling agencies, or corporations operated by the interested concerns."

ITALIAN DEFINES ITALY'S WAR AIMS

Washington, June 6.—Italy's war aims were defined in a statement today by Francisco Saverio Nitti, former Italian cabinet officer and a member of war mission. "Italy did not enter the war for indemnities or annexation," he said. "Italy entered the war for the purpose of rectifying our frontiers in order that the liberty and freedom of Italian subjects living under the Austrian yoke may be won. Italy's war is a war for independence and humanity."

Mr. Nitti, a professor of economics at the university of Naples, discussed with authority and interest the report that the commission had reached an agreement with the American government regarding the status of Italians of military age in this country. There must be more than 250,000 Italians in the United States, he said, who are liable for military duty but they are for the most part over the age limit of your conscription law, as the great majority of our young men abroad returned to Italy at the outbreak of the war. The men who remain here are men of family and have established themselves in the community."

WET WEATHER HINDERS CULTIVATION OF CROPS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 6.—Wet weather the week ending Tuesday, June 5, has hindered corn planting and cultivating and fields are becoming weedy, according to the weekly crop bulletin issued by the weather bureau here today. "In the bottoms of the southern part of the state much of the land is under water," the report states. "The condition of oats is very promising. The surviving wheat is improving and vegetables are doing well. The cherry crop is not heavy."

Six inches of rain fell in ten hours exceeding all former 24 hour records, the bulletin says.

SUFFRAGE ADVOCATES SCORE A POINT

Washington, June 6.—Woman suffrage advocates scored a point and lost one today in the first session of the special session on the question of votes for women. The rules committee ordered a favorable report after war legislation is disposed of on Representative Rankins' resolution. Later Republican members sought to force action in the house on Representative Rankins' motion to discharge the judiciary committee from further consideration of the proposed suffrage amendment, but a motion by Democratic Leader Kitchin to adjourn was carried by 210 to 119.

AMERICA'S GAIN OF GOLD CEASES

Importations Stop Altogether and Flow Begins The Other Way

MAY CONTINUE SOME TIME

Turning Comes As Country Apparently Faces Greatest Industrial Period in History

CESSATION A NOVELTY

WASHINGTON, June 6.—America's great gain of gold, which has grown with almost every month for two and one-half years has ceased. Gold importations have stopped altogether and the flow has begun the other way with indications that it will continue in comparative volume for some time. The turning of the tide comes at a time when the country apparently faces the greatest industrial period of its history, greater, officials believe, than the past twelve months, which witnessed the establishment of $4,000,000,000 record for American exports.

Plans under consideration now call for an outpouring of approximately $4,000,000,000 a year of exports to entente nations alone and if American fields and factories are equal to the task of meeting demands the total exports will be swollen hundreds of millions beyond these figures.

Regard Development Healthy.
Cessation of gold imports to settle trade balances when trade balances are heavier than ever before against foreign buyers is virtually a novelty in American finance. On the whole it is regarded as a healthy development as further accretions might tend toward inflation. All foreign purchases will be paid for, of course, but in a different form, the payment being made by money furnished the buyers by the United States and obtained by the flotation of bond issues.

With the establishment of these credits it is explained the entente governments who have bought the bulk of American exports have found it unnecessary to continue sending gold for trade balances. They will send their bonds instead to secure the credits advanced them.

PROTEST "RESTS ON GOSSIP AND HEARSAY"

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The protest signed by thirty patients aboard the navy hospital ship Solace charging mistreatment by the medical officers "rests on gossip and hearsay," according to the report of the civilian commission sent to the fleet by Secretary Daniels to investigate conditions.

After interviewing more than 100 men who were aboard the ship during the period covered by the complaint, the commission, composed of Dr. William H. Welch of Johns Hopkins University and Dr. Abraham Flexner and Nation Strauss of New York reported that:

"The general testimony is to the effect that they received what they wanted, needed and asked for. There was in our judgment, no lack of kindness and intelligent care on the part of Dr. Blackwood (commanding the Solace) and his assistants. They were dealing thruout the month of May with an unprecedented emergency and in handling it they acquitted themselves admirably."

CONFEDERATES HOLD MEMORIAL EXERCISES

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Memorial exercises for the soldier dead in the confederate section of Arlington National Cemetery featured today a program of the United Confederate Veterans re-union.

Bishop Collins Denny of Richmond, Va., paid a tribute to the women of the south thru whose efforts the memorial shaft was erected.

Emphasizing the spirit of fraternity and unity existing now between the sections Bishop Denny said:

"This monument is the seal of a fraternal union, America is united. The young men of today will remember the heroism of their fathers and are ready to sacrifice their all for the Stars and Stripes."

Survivors of the famous Mosby raiders held a meeting today and formed a permanent organization. Veterans and visitors continued to come in during the day, swelling the number of veterans to about ten thousand and the total of visitors to 100,000, nearly double the pre-union estimates.

NINTH JUROR SELECTED

San Francisco, June 6.—The ninth juror was selected today in the murder trial of Mrs. Rena Mooney accused of complicity in the bomb explosion here last summer which killed ten persons.

ADMIT LOSS OF DESTROYER

Berlin, June 16, via London.—The loss of the German destroyer S-20 is admitted in an official statement issued by the war office in regard to the attack on Ostend by British ships.

BELIEVE AMERICAN SHIP SUNK GERMAN U-BOAT

Craft Engage in Running Fight Lasting Hour and a Half

Announcement Says Steamer's Final Shot Apparently Struck Submarine Which Raked Clear Out of Water and Stood Stern up for a Few Seconds. She Then Disappeared.

Washington, June 6.—A German submarine is believed to have been sunk by an armed American steamer yesterday in a running fight lasting an hour and a half in which thirty-five shots were fired by the submarine and 25 by the steamer. An official announcement by the state department today says the steamer's final shot "apparently struck the submarine which raked clear out of the water and stood stern end up for a few seconds. She then disappeared."

The department's announcement follows:

"The department of state is advised by telegraph of an engagement between an armed American steamer and a submarine. The guns of the steamer were manned by an American naval crew. Out of the water was first seen at about 7,000 yards. She had a six inch gun forward and another aft. She flew no flag.

"Upon sight of the submarine the steamer hoisted the American flag and waited for about ten minutes. As the submarine approached the steamer the steamer fired. The submarine responded. The steamer kept a speed that would permit the submarine to come within range. Then followed a fight lasting for an hour and a half. The submarine came to a distance of about 2,300 yards. By that time the submarine had fired 35 shots and the steamer 25. The last shot of the steamer apparently struck the submarine, which raked clear out of the water and stood stern end up for a few seconds. Then she disappeared. The captain of the steamer and the commander of the guard believe that the submarine was sunk. The steamer suffered no damage."

EIGHTY-FOUR COUNTIES GIVE DRAFT LAW RETURNS

Bring Illinois Registration Totals Up To 595,141

Estimates That Enough More Listed in the Missing Precincts to Make Total for State 650,000—Upwards of Sixty Per Cent Claim Exemption

Chicago, Ill., June 6.—Returns from 84 counties out of 102 in Illinois and from all but three cities in the state tonight showed that 595,141 young men of Illinois registered on Tuesday for army service in the counties reported, and it was estimated that enough more listed in the missing precincts to make the total for the state 650,000.

The number expected to be registered in Illinois on a census estimate was 647,563.

The total for Cook county was 345,169 of which 209,912 were residents of Chicago. Returns were delayed by the work of tabulating the registrants as to whether exemption was claimed and listing negroes, aliens and alien enemies.

Exemption was claimed, mostly based on dependency, by upwards of sixty per cent of all the men who registered. Of the 248,981 persons who registered in 83 counties outside of Chicago there were 15,722 aliens, 2,289 alien enemies and 4,915 negroes. Of these 135,283 claimed exemption.

SENATE TO CONSIDER WAR TAX BILL NEXT WEEK

Committee Abandons Plan To Have Bill Ready Tomorrow

Chairman Simmons States Committee Hopes to Complete Revision Saturday—Printing and Preparation of Report Will Take Several Days.

Washington, June 6.—Consideration of the redrafted war tax bill will not begin in the senate until next week. After nearly two weeks spent in revising the house bill downward, the senate finance committee today abandoned its plan to have the measure ready Friday. Instead, Chairman Simmons said, the committee hopes to complete its revision Saturday. Printing and preparation of the report will take several days.

Decisions on important taxation questions still pending were deferred today. Details and minor tax rates alone occupying the day's sessions. Rates on incomes and excess profits are to be left to the last, it appears probable that both as adopted by the house may be changed and increased in some respects. Any revenue needed to make a total levy of $1,500,000,000 probably will be secured by increasing the income or excess profits taxes.

The documentary stamp section to be considered tomorrow probably will be little changed. As to the tax on publishers, which also may be settled at tomorrow's session, committee sentiment apparently favors adhering to the tentative decision for a two per cent advertising levy and against increasing postage rates. Among other questions agreed upon today was a tax aimed at theater ticket scalpers, a fifty per cent tax upon the profits on tickets to theaters and other amusements sold at news stands, hotels or other places than the management ticket office.

Exemption of bonafide Chautauques and lyceums from the amusement admission taxes when operated by local concerns was agreed to. The committee in addition amended the exemption from admission taxes provided for agricultural fairs to include all receipts.

Officers of the American sugar against the committee's announced plan to repeal the present law allowing re-export or "drawback" allowance on sugar imported, refined and then re-exported, which aggregate $19,000,000 annually. Senator Simmons said later the question would be subject to reconsideration.

AUCTION BILLINGS' TROTTER HORSES

NEW YORK, June 6.—All of the trotting horses from Curless Neck Farm, the property of C. K. G. Billings, were sold today at auction in Madison Square Garden. Seventy horses were under the hammer for a total of $80,100. The top price of $30,100 was paid by Paul Kuhn, Terre Haute, Ind., for the trotting stallion, The Harvester, 2:01, after some spirited bidding.

The champion pacing colt, William 1:58 1/2, was purchased by J. C. Crouch & Son, LaFayette, Ind., for $8,000. Peter Dillon, 2:11 1/2, went to the Elm Pine farm, Greenwich, N. Y., for $3,900, and Bion, a Russian Orloff stallion which was purchased in Russia for the reported price of $20,000 by Mr. Billings, was sold for $450.

Among sixty head in another collection was the champion pacer, Di-rectum L., 1:56 1/2, and holder of fourteen world's harness records which was bought by S. S. Shurtler, Ellenville, Ulster county, N. Y.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 6.—A bill to regulate the hours of labor for women, the passage of which was urged this week in a message from Governor Lowden was introduced in the senate today by Senator Curtis and advanced to second reading.

It would put the following restrictions on hours of work for women:

Mercantile establishments—10 hours a day.

Mechanical, factories, mills, workshops, etc.—eight hours.

Transportation companies, public utilities, theaters and public institutions—eight hours.

TWENTY-FOUR DIE IN TORNADES

Storms Spread Death and Destruction In Kansas and Missouri

ABOUT 150 ARE HURT

Estimates of Property Damage Place It Between One and Two Million

LIST MAY BE AUGMENTED

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 6.—For the third time within two weeks, tornadoes last night and today spread death and destruction thru rural districts of Missouri and Kansas. Reports from the stricken districts tonight showed fifteen to have been killed in Missouri and nine in Kansas. The number of injured—many of whom probably will die—has reached approximately 150, and estimates of the property damage place it between $1,000,000 to $2,000,000.

The greatest loss of life apparently was in Boone county, Missouri where the tornado claimed eleven persons. In Carroll, Charlton and Ray counties, bordering on the Missouri river, four are dead, three at Richmond and one at Whitman.

Kansas Deaths Total Nine.
In Kansas the deaths tallied eight in the country southeast of Topeka, one other was killed at Savannah, in the far southeastern section of the state near Iola where the tornado appeared early today.

The greatest loss of life at any single point was at Centerville, Five died in the destruction of about 50 houses within the city and two were killed nearby. More than a score were injured. Reports early tonight were that four others were killed in Boone county but it is feared that number will be augmented. No estimate of the number of injured was obtainable.

BOWEN'S BIG TASK.

When Governor Lowden sent A. L. Bowen to serve as acting warden of Joliet penitentiary it was for the purpose of straightening out the situation there. It has been common knowledge that the honor system has been overdone at the penitentiary and members of a legislative committee which recently visited the institution reported that the inmates were in large degree running it. Mr. Bowen has long been connected with the charitable institutions of the state and is a notable advocate of humane and modernized institutional treatment. It can therefore be readily assumed that the new rules he put into effect at the penitentiary were not too severe but were needed in order to restore discipline where chaos ruled. So the mutiny which took place at the penitentiary recently should not occasion criticism of the acting warden's course, for on the contrary it gives evidence that the reorganization work was vastly needed at the penitentiary.

WOULD CHANGE TAX COLLECTION TIME.

A law which is said to have passed both the senate and house of the Illinois general assembly and awaits the signature of the governor, provides for the collection of taxes twice a year instead of once a year in accordance with the plan long in force. By the terms of this law taxes will be collected in February and August of each year. Property owners can pay the whole amount of the tax in February if they so desire and if they wish to pay only half the unpaid portion will be subject to a penalty of one per cent per month. Little publicity has been given the matter and it is not known just what were the arguments presented to the legislators to induce this action. There are certainly some objections to the law and in a county of this size it is not easy to figure the benefits which will accrue. Until the full text of the law has been received it will not be possible to give an intelligent summary of its provisions or the arguments for or against it.

GOVERNMENT IS LENIENT.

Altho the names of men registered thruout the country is about equal to government estimates, telegrams sent out from Washington yesterday extended the time for registration. This action makes clear the desire of the government to be entirely fair in this matter, realizing as it must, that failure to register in many instances is due to misunderstanding of the law. In the publicity given the conscription law provisions the government depended entirely upon the space voluntarily given by the newspapers of the country. While the newspapers reach a very large percentage of the people, there are some citizens who do not read any paper and therefore all the knowledge they could have of the conscription act would be from hearsay.

Those who have wilfully neglected registration provisions will be promptly prosecuted but the government, properly and very clearly, desires to give every loyal citizen the opportunity to have his name enrolled upon the records.

PRACTICAL WORK NEEDED.

That the U. S. commission to Russia has important practical work to perform at once was indicated by a statement made here yesterday by Mr. Lee, general freight agent of the C. & A. Mr. Lee quoted an express company representative recently returned from Russia, in stating that very little of the vast amount of railroad equipment shipped to Russia in the past year has been of any advantage. In one of the great harbors there, it is said that there are great piles of baled cotton which have been standing exposed to the weather for three years. Locomotives and freight cars to the number of thousands have been dumped in the mud by shipping companies simply because they had no provisions to permit their unloading. Thus has come about a great freight congestion and before dealing with problems of state the practical railroad operators and traffic men among the Americans must tackle this big problem and see to it that the rails, locomotives, freight cars and general supplies shipped to Russia in such vast quantities are utilized for the purposes they were sent.

WATER SUPPLY INVESTIGATION.

The proposal to spend a sum not to exceed $6,000 for investigating permanent water supply plans for Jacksonville is worth while. It will be conceded without discussion that Jacksonville must do something to secure a permanent supply and not again be subjected to the serious disadvantages which came from the drought the past year. Nothing can be done toward solving the question until definite information is at hand as to possible sources of supply. It is proposed first of all to make a thorough test of the possibilities from the north side pumping station and adjacent territory. This is certainly a wise plan, as it would be foolish, indeed, to spend a large sum for permanent supply there without first securing definite scientific information as to the possibilities.

Members of the joint committee of the council and citizens have signified their interest in the matter by expressing their willingness to be ten out of fifty men to temporarily care for the expense of this investigation work and thus make it possible for the city to proceed with the investigation at an early date. The water question has been discussed and re-discussed for many years. Now is the time to take these initial steps toward final solution.

THE RAILROADS AND REVENUE.

It is hardly to be expected that shippers generally will join with the railroads in asking the interstate commerce commission and the state utility commission to grant the roads a right to increase freights. However, many commercial organizations that have investigated the question are formally expressing their approval of the proposed increase. The railroads can be justly subjected to some criticism for the lack of efficiency in their methods of operations but in all fairness it must be admitted that they will be compelled to increase their earnings in order to meet the increased expenses imposed by the Adamson law and rising from the much higher cost of all supplies they use.

Engines and cars now cost double by comparison with two years ago and the same rule applies to other supplies the railroads must have. When the Adamson law was passed those who gave the question any thought knew at once that the millions thus paid to the railroad men must inevitably be passed on to the public. The proposal for increased rates now has its patriotic appeal also, for in order to meet government requirements the railroads must increase and better their equipment. With most of these roads it is impossible to finance such betterments unless there is assurance that there will be increased revenues. It is not a wholly one-sided question, but in the argument for increased rates the railroads have decidedly the better of it.

Rippling Rhymes

VAIN LONGINGS

I'd like to be as slim and straight as when I was a middleweight. I wouldn't run so much to waist. If I refused to taste the kinds of grub containing starch, and if on foot I'd daily march instead of riding down the street, while thinner people use their feet. It's easy to reduce one's fat—the doctors all agree on that, the doctors of a dozen schools; but when I've read the list of rules, I heave a sad and soulful sigh, and call for porter-house and pie. Vain longings I have often felt, to wear a smaller, shorter belt, of double chins I would dispose, and once again behold my toes. I know I ought to live on rice, and divers yarks just off the ice; I ought to walk ten miles a day, and with the hefty dumbbells play, and in a year, the doctors state, I would have lost a ton of weight. But one may pay too great a price for looking willowy and nice, the cost of beauty comes too high, when one must shun the gaudy pie, forsake the gravy and the roast, and live on tea and brick-hard toast. No prudent man of ample girth will for a figure trade the earth.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Germany's air raid Tuesday over eastern England was a costly one, of eighteen aircraft which participated in the bomb dropping excursion only ten got away.

From the outset of their journey across the English channel over England and on the return trip the Germans at all times were hotly engaged by British aviators. Two machines of the invading flotilla were shot down near the British coast after bombs had been dropped killing twelve persons and wounding 36 others. The other sixteen planes were given battle high over the water by ten British naval airmen who destroyed two more and sent hurtling down into the sea four others.

Otherwise the submarines (German) have met with hard usage at the hands of American and French merchantmen. One of the underwater boats is reported to have been sunk by guns on an American steamer operated by American naval gunners after a long duel in which the submarine fired 35 shots and the American vessel 25. The last shot of the American crew is believed to have found its mark as the submarine rose out of the water and then disappeared. The French steamer Oronoque also gave battle to a German submarine which was trying to approach her in a heavy sea. Four shots from the steamer sent the U-boat scurrying beneath the waves.

From the north sea to the Franco-Belgian frontier the entente allies and the Germans are engaged in artillery duels which are especially violent around Dixmude and Hel-Sas and in the region of Wytschate, south of Ypres. On the north bank of the Scarpe river to the east of Arras the British have captured from the Germans trenches over a front of about a mile and made 162 prisoners.

The Germans are heavily attacking the French troops in the region between Soissons and Rheims, but except on one sector they have everywhere been repulsed with heavy casualties. North of the Chemin des Dames some French elements were captured by Germans.

Again there has been lively fighting in the air between the British and Germans in which eight enemy machines were shot down and eight others driven out of control.

The British themselves lost 7 machines. In the Austro-Italian theater the Italians have been forced to give ground before violent attacks by the Austrians south of Trieste. The Vienna war office claims the capture of 271 Italian officers and 6,500 men in this fighting. All along the front the Austrians are heavily shelling Italian positions with the Italians replying vigorously.

Eighteen British merchantmen were sunk by mines or submarines last week as compared with nineteen the previous week, according to a British admiralty announcement.

Mrs. E. A. Tanner and Mrs. R. C. Reynolds were among the Jacksonville women who spent Wednesday the guests of Mrs. G. H. Kopperl in Carrollton.

he said. "The actual recording has been practically finished in a single day, but the arrangement and copying of the cards, their segregation into appropriate groups, the publication of lists and the gathering in of delayed registrations will consume a week or ten days. In the meantime the machinery of the registration is being readjusted to serve as machinery for the further execution of the law."

"This work is proceeding rapidly and should be completed coincidentally with the tying up of the loose ends of registration. When this is done, regulations governing the jurisdictions of the local boards will be issued and machinery will then be ready to proceed to a determination of the order in which men will be examined for the purpose of their selection for military or industrial service."

"The policy of decentralization will be adhered to throughout. The various states, knowing the number of men which they must call and the order in which each particular man is to be examined, can then assign to the various local boards the task of selecting the number of men necessary to complete the quota for the locality under the jurisdiction of each board."

"Precise time limits cannot be set at present for the reason that it is desired to have uniformity of operation of the machines throughout the United States and to have each step taken simultaneously throughout the nation."

Gregory Issues Statement. Attorney General Gregory reiterated tonight his gratification over the absence of any serious disorders yesterday. A statement from the department of justice said:

"The reports received at the department throughout the day from officers and agents in widely separated sections of the country reflected the same absence of trouble and general response to the provisions of the conscription act which characterized the reports received yesterday. These reports indicate that the registration may exceed materially the estimates prepared by the war department on a basis of census figures. Department officials have been led by the heaviness of the registration to believe that the number of the evasions of the law will prove even fewer than had been expected."

"The fact that a man has registered does not in any way curtail his freedom of action. Should he see fit to leave the country he may do so, but he must return immediately if he is selected for the draft."

Some Forward Estimates. Some of the states in which the canvass had not been completed forwarded estimates of their total registration. These included an estimate of 959,099 for Pennsylvania, whose eligible the census bureau figures had placed at 876,378. Michigan state officials sent an estimate of 326,000 against a census estimate of 328,154; New Jersey 394,228 against 399,563 and Wisconsin 118,700 against 229,897.

FOOD CROPS MAKE GOOD PROGRESS. Winter Wheat Shows Excellent Growth, Spring Wheat Makes Favorable Growth and Corn is in Good Shape.

Washington, June 6.—Food crops made good progress generally during the last week. Reports in the national weather and crop bulletin today said winter wheat showed excellent growth throughout the principal wheat growing areas; spring wheat continued to make favorable growth and corn, in spite of rather unfavorable conditions in the chief producing states, is as a whole, in good shape. Early potatoes are in good condition in the south and planting of potatoes continues in most of the northern states. Rain is needed badly for truck crops in the east gulf states while in other sections they are reported doing well.

Greatly increased acreage in beans is reported. Rice is doing well in Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas and a large acreage has been planted in California. Improvement in the condition of cotton over most of the belt is reported.

Weekly reports of the department of agriculture show price of new potatoes continue firm despite increased shipments. Heavy supplies of home grown strawberries, oversupply of onions with prices lower, twice as heavy supplies of early cabbage as last year, the peach and watermelon crops opening a week earlier than last year and heavy shipments of lettuce.

HONUS WAGNER WILL REJOIN THE PIRATES

Star Shortstop Signs Contract and Will Appear at First Base in Game With Brooklyn Today.

Pittsburgh, June 6.—John Henry (Honus) Wagner, star shortstop, who failed to report to the Pittsburgh Nationals at the beginning of the season after twenty years as a player in the National league, today signed a contract with President Barney Dreyfus of the Pittsburgh club. It was announced that Wagner will appear at first base in tomorrow's game with Brooklyn.

No statement was made as to the salary Wagner will receive under the new contract. For the past two years, it is said he has been receiving a salary of $10,000 and according to some reports, it was because of a reduction that the veteran shortstop failed to report this spring. Officials of the club at various times announced that Wagner had not joined the team on account of business interests.

Despite predictions and rumors, Wagner refused to make an announcement that he had retired from the game.

For more than a week it had been reported persistently that Wagner would rejoin the club and it was known that he was being urged to do so by many who attributed this year's slump of the Pirates to his absence.

After signing contract Wagner sent the following telegram to August Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball commission:

"Finding the call of baseball too strong to resist, I desire to continue to play the game I love and to which I owe all I possess and I hereby petition the national commission to grant my request for reinstatement so that I may play with my old club tomorrow."

Herrmann Reinstates Wagner. Cincinnati, O., June 6.—August Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball commission said tonight he had been informed that John Henry Wagner had signed a Pittsburgh National League contract and that he had reinstated him to good standing without inflicting a fine.

FROM THE EDUCATOR'S NOTEBOOK. Compulsory education has been in force in Germany for nearly two centuries. Starting in the 17th century, the idea grew and spread in the 18th until all German lands had passed laws making education obligatory. The schools of Germany differ in the different German states, the idea being to organize them to meet the varying needs of the communities, agricultural, industrial, commercial and scholastic. The schools of Berlin may be taken as representative of the schools of the entire Empire. Education in them is compulsory from the beginning of the sixth to the beginning of the seventeenth year, a period of eleven years. At the age of fourteen the child may leave school to go to work, but he must attend continuation school for special technical instruction until he is seventeen.

Approximately 570 kindergartens were opened last year in public schools that exceed had them before, according to a recently completed survey by the Bureau of Education of the Department of the Interior. This means an extra year of education for about 25,000 children, and as the boys and girls of the United States average a little over five years in school, the value of this additional training is very great. Several cities have been or are now carrying on experimental kindergarten work with a view of proving the value of this kind of training before definitely incorporating it in the curriculum.

Youngstown, O., and Houston Heights, Tex. are two of the recent "converts" who after due experimentation have enthusiastically adopted the kindergarten. Many of the kindergartens opened for the first time in 1916 were secured as the result of petitions signed by parents. This has proved a successful method of extending the movement, and in a number of states, including New York, Kansas, Maine, Oregon, Utah and Texas, bills will be introduced in the state legislatures for the establishment of kindergartens on petition of parents.

Dr. Melvin A. Brannon, who will succeed Dr. Edward Eaton as president of Beloit College, Wis., has been since April 1, 1914, president of the University of Idaho. D. in 1912. He is 51 years old. He began his career in teaching as an instructor in the natural sciences in the Fort Wayne, Ind., high school. For twenty years, previous to becoming president of the University of Idaho in 1914, he was connected with the University of North Dakota, through this time as professor of biology, and from 1899 to 1911 as Dean of the School of Medicine, and from 1911 to 1914, as Dean of the College of Liberal Arts. Dr. Eaton, whom he succeeds at Beloit, resigned last winter after thirty years of service.

BEET BABY MYSTERY MAY BE NEARING SOLUTION

Springfield, Mo., June 6.—The mystery surrounding Baby Lloyd Keet, who disappeared a week ago tonight may be nearing solution, authorities and friends of the family believe.

Six persons were being held custody tonight, one here another at Ozark, Mo., and the other four, including a woman are held at some unknown place to which they were taken when their jailers here became frightened at the possibility of mob violence. Confessions were said by the authorities to have been made by the prisoners that they had planned to abduct C. A. Clement, a local jeweler, a child here and a St. Louis munitions maker. The later plot, Paul O'Day, the county prosecutor said, was merely discussed by the alleged conspirators, after they had been approached by a German agent who desired them to aid in attempts to suppress munitions traffic.

The plots described were said to have been outlined by one or more Chicago men, whose names Judge Arch A. Johnson of the Springfield circuit court of appeals said, had been furnished him Judge Johnson announced, also that several others were under surveillance, some for direct connection with the Keet mystery and friends of the banker expressed themselves tonight as being confident that the missing baby soon would be returned.

REFUSES TO DISCUSS FOOD SITUATION. London, June 6.—In the house of commons today, in reply to a question on the food situation Captain Charles Bateman, parliamentary secretary to the food control department, said it was not in the public interest to give any information regarding food supplies but it was of the greatest importance to the success of the allies' cause that food exports from America should be on the highest possible scale for the remainder of the war.

Captain Bateman's statement is somewhat disquieting to the public and press.

The Daily Chronicle in an editorial on the subject thinks there is more in it than meets the eye, and proceeds to refer to the delay in the execution of the food plans owing to the disagreement in congress.

"It is not for us," says the paper, "to criticize the course of American legislation, but in this case we may be pardoned for feeling some anxiety at delays, which if extended farther might entail most serious consequences for the allied countries."

RAILROAD MEN HERE
TALK FREIGHT INCREASESDeclare More Revenue is Demanded by Adamson Law Increases and Other Operation Costs

A company of railroad representatives visited Jacksonville yesterday for the purpose of enlisting the support of shippers in securing an increase in freight rates. A hearing is in progress now before the interstate commerce commission at Washington with reference to this subject and the state utility commission will consider the same question the coming week.

The party of railroad men included A. E. Lee, general freight agent of the Chicago & Alton railroad, James Mann, division freight agent of the C. & A., W. L. Bowles, division freight agent of the Wabash, G. M. Weston, general agent of the C. P. & St. L. These men were accompanied in their tour of the business district by the local agents of the roads. In the afternoon they met members of the transportation committee and a number of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and made a statement concerning the emergency the railroads are said to be facing.

In brief it is the claim of the roads that because of the increased cost of operation resulting from the passage of the Adamson law and because of the general increased cost of operation, that an increase in freight rates is necessary if the railroads are to be operated at a profit and are enabled to furnish the service which is essential to the war preparation program. E. H. Gray is the chairman of the transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce and it was at his suggestion that the directors and members of the committee attended the meeting yesterday. While a number of the present expressed themselves as sympathizing with the railroad attitude it was decided it would not be proper to take any action until a special meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce has been called for consideration of the subject. President Reeve has called a meeting for this purpose at 4 p. m. today.

Several of the relatives of Mrs. Suddeth left Wednesday afternoon for Jacksonville and from there will take the train to Clinton.

RUSSIAN OATS
J. A. Groves of Mound avenue was displaying yesterday a sample of Russian oats raised in a plot in his garden. The sample showed twenty three stools from one grain. J. R. SAMPLE CLOSED
USEFUL CAREER

Former Jacksonville Man Who Died Recently in Bradenton, Fla., Had Varied Experience as Railroader and Business Man—Died After Brief Illness.

J. R. Samples, whose death was mentioned briefly a few days ago, has many friends in this community who were saddened by the news of his passing. Mr. Samples' death occurred Sunday, May 20 at Bradenton, Fla., after a few hours' illness of indigestion. The Haines City, Fla., Herald had the following to say of Mr. Sample:

"Joseph Richard Sample, a well preserved and active man of seventy-one years, passed away Sunday night at Bradenton, after a few hours' illness from acute indigestion."

"Mr. Sample leaves a wife and daughter, Miss Lee Sample, of this place and a son, J. E. Sample of New York. He was a cousin of the Sample brothers who have lived in Haines City many years."

"Mr. Sample was born in Jacksonville, Ill., where his parents lived after leaving Virginia. He had an extended experience in the railroad business, having been with the Louisville & Nashville railroad a number of years. At one time he had charge of the Mackey system of railroads in Indiana, and later was general superintendent of the Illinois Central."

"After retiring from railroad duties he was employed by the Western Union Telegraph company for some time and served in that capacity while in Haines City two years ago. Since then he has been in business in Bradenton, Fla."

"Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sample, with the sorrowing wife and daughter went to Bradenton Monday and returned Tuesday with the body, which was laid to rest in the cemetery here Tuesday afternoon."

COOL WEATHER NEEDED
For some time the earnest desire has been for hot weather to make things grow but just now a few days of cool breezes will be acceptable as the ground is so saturated that hot days would make the ground bake and well high kill the growing corn. The weather yesterday was quite ideal in the respect mentioned.

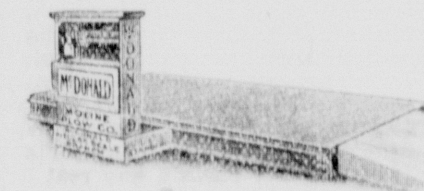

"JEFFERY SIX" UNDERPRICED

Our present low price on this car is due only to the fact that the present stock of raw materials were purchased over a year ago. The truth of the matter is that the Jeffery Six was underpriced in 1916 when the present price of $1,465 was fixed. Now with forty-five manufacturers who have made advances, and in the face of raises which must inevitably follow in the near future, the Jeffery Six represents value that cannot be secured under $1,700. WATER COMMITTEE
PLANS TEST WORKSuggestion Made for Securing $60,000 Survey Says is Needed for Investigation

At a meeting of the joint committee of the city council and citizens appointed to consider the matter of water supply, a formal agreement was reached yesterday to authorize the expenditure of a sum not to exceed $6,000 for investigation purposes. This agreement was with the understanding that fifty citizens can be found who are willing to guarantee the payment of this amount in event of the failure or inability of the city to provide the sum required.

Would Authorize $6,000 Expense.
It was the suggestion of the water survey that in order to determine the best course to follow here for the securing of a permanent water supply, that a certain amount of preliminary investigation work would be necessary, and it was estimated that this would cost not more than $6,000. As the city is in such condition that it cannot furnish the money for this work, the joint committee hit upon the plan of having the expenditure protected by a number of citizens.

The ten members of the committee promptly affixed their signatures to the agreement and it is the expectation that there will be no great difficulty in finding forty other citizens who will join in this "patriotic" movement. The signed agreement in effect will be that persons who subscribe their names will pay the bills to the extent of $6,000 for this investigation work. If called upon to do so, the further understanding being that the payment will be in the nature of a loan to the city of Jacksonville and that eventually the money will come from the city treasury.

Survey and Committee Work Together

The new survey will be expended under the direction of the water survey in connection with the joint committee. The bills will be filed in the usual way, approved by the city council and the money paid in accordance with the plan whereby money is now secured on approved city bills. If, however, the money has not been forthcoming from the city treasury by the first of May, 1919, the citizens who subscribe to the agreement may be called upon by the bank to put up the money. In other words, citizens who sign the agreement will be joining in the laudable effort to permanently solve the question of Jacksonville's water supply and may be lending the city a sum of money for a time but will not sustain any real loss.

MEDICAL SOCIETY
SEMI-CENTENNIAL

Altho the semi-centennial anniversary of the Morgan County Medical occurred in May the formal celebration of the event will not be until November. This was decided at a meeting of the committee on semi-centennial celebration held Wednesday night. The fact that it was impossible to complete all necessary arrangements for a May celebration and the committee deemed it advisable to postpone the whole matter until the annual meeting date in November. Meanwhile the committees will gather considerable new data relative to the society and the plans are such that an anniversary program of general public interest is anticipated.

VILLAGE BOARD PASSES
APPROPRIATION ORDINANCE

At the regular meeting of the village board of South Jacksonville Wednesday evening the annual appropriation ordinance for the year, carrying a total of $1,700 was passed.

The board also passed an ordinance disconnecting certain lands from the village. Guy Coultas was appointed constable by President Perryman and was sworn in by village clerk E. E. Beasly and assumed his duties.

The petition presented by property owners asking for the disconnecting of land was signed by H. C. Massey, J. H. Cummings, Enoch Massey, Estate of Alice B. Hall, David Tuke and a portion of the land of Martha A. Routt. The land extends from the original south limits of the village north to the property of J. Frank Kitter.

FROM DUBIN.

G. W. Oxley of Dubin neighborhood was a visitor in the city yesterday. He gives an encouraging account of crops in his vicinity. Oats are looking fine and wheat far more promising than a while back. Some were frightened too soon and plowed their wheat when it would have been better to let it stand. Corn is generally good and a good stand secured. If only now we get good weather for cultivation before the weeds and grass get a start.

CHAPIN BANK MAKES LIBERAL SUBSCRIPTIONDirectors Decide to Buy $15,000 of Liberty Bonds—Action Reflects
Loyal Sentiment of German Neighborhood

The action taken by the directors of the Chapin State Bank at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon indicates the spirit and patriotism of that institution and also reflects the sentiment of the surrounding community. The bank directors had previously voted to take $10,000 of the liberty loan bonds and at the meeting Wednesday increased this sum to $15,000. This means that the Chapin bank will invest in the liberty loan bonds a sum equal to practically ten per cent of its deposits as shown by a recent statement.

If the larger banks throughout the country subscribe on the same percentage basis the entire loan will have been placed. It was possible for the Chapin bank to take this action because of the conservative policy adhered to thru the years of carrying an especially strong reserve.

It is interesting to note in this connection that of the five bank directors, who are John Onken, Gustaf Onken, George H. Coulson, Alfred G. Brockhouse and Judge Edward P. Brockhouse, two are naturalized German citizens, and two are of pure German descent. As is generally known thruout the country, people of German descent predominate in the Chapin neighborhood and the action taken by the bank directors Wednesday is only one of the ways in which the patriotic spirit of the citizens in the locality has been recorded. Some of the first to volunteer free service for registration day came from the Chapin neighborhood and it is known that months ago some of the German residents there in communications to Governor Lowden indicated a willingness to co-operate in any desired way in upholding the honor of this nation.

HERE FROM KANSAS.

Vincent Richardson and his brother W. R. are here from Stafford, Kansas to attend the funeral of their brother, John V. Richardson. W. R. Richardson called on the Journal office yesterday and gave some interesting facts regarding his part of the country. He says the wheat crop is quite promising but corn is not so good. They have had too much rain and hard work to get a good stand some replanting two or three times. The wheat belt isn't very far across the state as one of his neighbors can't testify. He went westward and pit in a crop and will have nothing.

John Riley, formerly of this locality, has a large tract of land and had a crop of 12,000 bushels of wheat. He sold 3,000 bushels one morning at $2.85 and in the afternoon they offered him $3.00 for the other 9,000 bushels but he declined to sell just then not knowing how much he might need.

A son-in-law of Vincent Richardson had a crop of some 1,600 bushels and sold it at $3.25 and next day it went down to $2.75.

On the way across Missouri Tuesday they missed what seemed to be a tornado which passed in the rear of the train uncomfortably near them but missed them to their great relief. Mr. Richardson says he hears there was a bad storm like a tornado at St. Johns, the county seat of the county in which he lives tho he has no particulars.

NATIONAL EDUCATORS
MEET IN PORTLAND

E. R. Tuttle the veteran traveling passenger agent of the Union Pacific railroad system was in the city yesterday and called at the Journal office. Mr. Tuttle is a genial whole souled gentleman and one whom it is a pleasure to meet. He has been with the road almost forty years and from his youthful appearance and vigorous manner one would easily suppose him good for four decades more of service.

He says the National Educators' Association will meet this year in Portland, Oregon, July 7-14th as at first planned. There was some talk of calling it off on account of the war but it has been decided to hold the meeting as usual. Mr. Tuttle says Pacific coast tourist season will not be much higher this season than usual and doubtless many will travel that way as journeying across the water is not so safe as formerly.

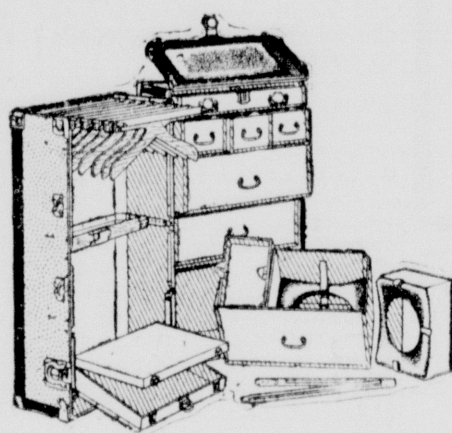

A FINE PORTRAIT

R. C. Smith has just completed a very creditable portrait of the Gen. Benj. Grierson, the renowned cavalry leader. It is from a photograph taken when the general was in his prime and in good of him at that time. The picture represents the subject in his military uniform and is a strong, vigorous piece of work.

Mrs. Smith's work in marble has been very meritorious, the statue of Miss Martha Strawn in Diamond Grove cemetery; bust of Burns and another of Prest. Sturtevant are very meritorious works of art. As a landscape painter Mr. Smith also excels and has in his studio a number of very fine exhibits of that kind. He has also had a number of groups and historic scenes which have been much praised.

CO. B RECRUITSLieut. Dickson Has Orders to Continue Work Here

Lieutenant H. A. Dickson who has been here for the past two weeks on recruiting duty has received orders to remain. Lieut. Dickson expected to receive orders to return to his company after registration day.

There is nothing to prevent anyone who has registered from joining a recognized military unit before the drawings are made for the first troops. Lieut. Dickson is wondering why young men in the city and county are hesitating about joining Company B. He said yesterday a lot of young men of recruiting age would say, "When they need me I will go." The lieutenant is of the opinion that the country does need the young men, else the government would not have had the selective draft.

It does seem strange that young men will wait until drawn before joining the colors. By enlisting now one has the opportunity of selecting the branch of service desired. When the names are drawn the recruit will have no choice but will have to go into the branch of service the government selects and to any part of the country.

Lieut. Dickson said last night that it was the hope that Company B could be made a strictly home organization. He said that in a recent conversation with Col. Wood that the question was asked by the regimental commander what was the matter with the young men of Jacksonville that they did not respond better to the call for recruits. It is to be hoped that people cannot point to Jacksonville and say that it was impossible to raise a company in Jacksonville but that the recruits had to be secured from adjacent cities and counties.

The recruiting office will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. each day at Armory hall on the south side of the square.

Jacksonville lodge No. 570 A. F. & A. M. will hold a special meeting to-night at 7:30. Visiting brothers welcome.

REGISTRATION RECORDS
COMPILED BY BOARDTotal Number for Morgan County
Is 2374—More Than Half Claim Exemptions—Time for Registration Extended

The Morgan county registration board, consisting of Sheriff Graff, County Clerk Boruff and County Physician Weirich, was in session yesterday summarizing the reports of the registrars. This work of summarization and compilation is being done in the office of County Clerk Boruff. The total registration for the county is 2,374.

This total is divided into several different classes, which appear from the table below, copies of which will be sent by the board to the state and federal government. Mr. Boruff said last night that in almost every instance the reports turned in by the registrars were in excellent condition, surprisingly so when it was considered how short a time the registrars had for familiarizing themselves with the requirements of the law.

Records in Good Condition

The registrars in one or two precincts had made duplicates of the cards a fact which saved the board considerable work, and doubtless other registrars would have done the same had there been sufficient time and a thorough understanding that duplicates were required to be kept on file in the county clerk's office. The records show that only three Jacksonville registrars who served, and not more than three or four in the county, filed requests for pay, all others donating their services to the government.

Time for Registration Extended

That the government wishes to give citizens between the ages of twenty one and thirty one every opportunity to register was indicated

PATRIOTIC PRAYER SERVICE

Prayer meeting services at Centenary church Wednesday evening were of especial interest, being of patriotic nature. There was a large congregation and Major C. E. McDougall was present and made a patriotic talk. McKendree Blair talked from the standpoint of the young man of today and A. C. Metcalf and T. H. Rapp sang a number of old time patriotic songs, the congregation joining in on the choruses. Altogether the meeting proved one of interest and profit.

For your information and guidance we quote the following from Washington: "Attention is invited to paragraph 40 of the regulations which contemplate the registration of persons who for any reason shall not have been registered on registration day. While scrutiny should be made of each case to determine whether punitive action is required, it is desired for the next few days to pursue a liberal policy in this regard in order that the registration may be complete at the earliest possible moment. Non-residents may also continue to register under the provisions of paragraph 61. If it later appear that the liberality of this policy is being abused, more stringent action will be taken. MORGAN FOUND

Man Who Defrauded John Brainer is Convicted—Tankersly Cleared on Like Charge.

In the circuit court Wednesday the jury which heard the evidence in the case of A. L. Morgan charged with forgery, returned a verdict finding him guilty. In this case Morgan was charged with raising a check signed by John Brainer from $5 to $500. The defendant did not deny receiving the money but claimed the check was presented to the bank in the form in which it was originally drawn.

In the case of William Tankersly, charged with forgery, the defendant was found not guilty. Tankersly was represented by William N. Hairgrove and the prosecution was conducted by State's Attorney Robinson. Some months ago it was charged that the defendant forged the name of his brother, Jeremiah Tankersly, to a check and the day following went to Colorado. A detective was put on his trail and he was brought back, but the state failed to make a case against him Wednesday.

The hearing of the case of Arthur Nelson for criminal assault will begin this morning. A jury was secured a short time before court adjourned Wednesday afternoon and the taking of evidence was postponed until today.

BELIEVES WORLD IS GROWING BETTER

Frederick Almy Expresses This Belief in Address Before Annual Session of Conference of Charities and Correction in Pittsburgh — Says Standards of Public Morality Have Risen.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 6.—Declaring his belief that "the world grows steadily better and that poverty grows less" despite, "days like these when the world is at war and the dark side of life is prominent," Frederick Almy, of Buffalo, as president of the organization, tonight delivered the opening address before the Forty-Fourth Annual Session of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections speaking on the subject, "The Conquest of Poverty."

Other speakers at the opening session were Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman, New York, who discussed "Poverty and Woman," and Raymond Robins of Chicago, whose subject was "The Challenge of a Changing Social Order."

"We are living in an age of havoc and we should prepare now for peace so that after the war is over construction will follow destruction," said President Almy. "If this cloud of war is to have a silvery lining it will come only through effort, and as social workers we have a responsibility."

"Already, during the war the world has gained in unimagined places. I think we all agree that in spite of the value of intelligent autocracy, democracy will in the end lessen poverty, by giving more opportunity to the poor; and in the last one hundred years the proportions of democracy and autocracy have been reversed. Today democracy is almost universal and autocracy the exception and the end is not yet."

Lack of Character Poverty Cause. "Next to lack of opportunity, lack of character is a chief cause of poverty, and I mean lack of character especially among the rich, and control many of the causes of poverty. Fortunately the church, which more than any other agent lifts character, is of to a considerable extent becoming socialized. Since the church attacked the great causes of sin as well as individual sin, we have seen a wave of progress. Drunkenness is less, murder is less, public morality is more. Though politics are bad enough, the standards of public morality have risen and much that was formerly accepted is no longer tolerated."

"Of course the spirit of service is not new in the world. Modern psychology tells us that altruism is as natural to man as selfishness. There were great souls as today in the time of the crusades. In scores of instances picked from all time there is an universal passion of service which equals in intensity anything seen in this age of charity, but I doubt if it was ever so widespread or so intelligent as now."

"What was there ever formerly to compare with the present effort for social justice in compensation laws, social insurance generally, minimum wage laws, shorter hours, housing, industrial education, public health, and a long and blessed list which augurs well for the further reduction of poverty? Even wealth is becoming more social and the Rockefeller, Carnegies and Sages, who made their money perhaps according to the standards of their day but who spend it far above those standards, are now freer, but a type. Better than this the number who are satisfied to be neither rich nor poor, and who will not prefer wealth to life is speedily increasing."

Genius the Same. "Genius is not more than it used to be in quality but in quantity. The heights are no higher, but more people live on the heights. The glory that was Greece and the grandeur that was Rome have become widespread. What Judea gave to the world is still being given, and the discontent which is so general and so hopeful makes me believe that if we put our shoulder to the wheel and attempt the impossible we may achieve it."

"I want to see all the weights removed from the lowest of mankind until he can rise to the full stature of which he is capable. Then and not till then, will there be an end of poverty."

CROSSED WIRES CAUSE BLAZE. Tuesday evening about 11:30 o'clock the fire department responded to a still alarm from the property at 612 North Church street owned by Miss Mae Baumann. A live electric light wire had fallen across a telephone wire during the storm and set the house on fire.

The department responded and extinguished the blaze and cut the wire and stopped the cause of the trouble. Basil Sorrells a nephew of Miss Baumann had his right hand burned trying to cut the wire with a pair of cutters not sufficiently insulated.

The department carries a pair of cutters with long handles that are insulated so heavily that they can be used with safety on the heaviest voltage used in the city. The cutters are especially equipped and are of much value to the department in such cases. Chief Hunt said that there were several wires in the same vicinity crossed with the wire that fell and that it looked as the several trees and poles were on fire.

TO THE STATE G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Comrades George Paul, L. Goheen, Frank Wigginjost and James F. Self have gone to Bloomington to enjoy the state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. The capital of McLean county has been making great preparations for their illustrious visitors and a fine time will no doubt be enjoyed by old boys while there.

O. N. Barr will go to Springfield today to attend a meeting of the laundrymen of Central Illinois. The sessions will be held at the Leland hotel.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Grandmothers' Story.

By Ensley Moore

(Member of Illinois Historical Society.)

The grandboys were in the old parlor in the old home, where grandfather had lived since he was a young boy. Grandmother sat in front of the fireplace, and George was on one side of her, with William on the other side. John sat close up by the lady, in the little chair in which all of grandmother's children had sat. Down on the velvet rug at his grandmother's feet Rawson lay, the baby of the set.

George's father was ten years younger than William's, but William's father had married later in life, after he had been a "veteran" in the Spanish War. But George's father had been a member of the Kansas National Guard, and had been trained with the Regulars at Ft. Riley, as sergeant major of his battalion. And William's mother's father had been a soldier in the Civil War and had spent a good while in that awful prison camp at Andersonville, never recovering from its evil effects. George's mother, too, belonged to an Ohio family the name of which was high in the days of the War.

So it was not surprising that the boys wanted Grandma to tell them

A War Story

The good lady was only too happy to please her lot of boys, and this is what she told them:

"You know, when the War began I was only a little girl, and lived in Quincy, where my father was pastor of a church."

"Quincy was then the next largest city to Chicago in the state, and being on the railroad, and on the Mississippi river, across from Missouri, it was a very important place, and there were camps and hospitals there for the soldiers."

As soon as the War began the soldiers commenced to gather there, and my sister and I were greatly interested in them, of course.

"As I said my father was a minister, and the soldiers used to come to hear him, because he was one of the strongest 'Union' men in Quincy. Sometimes he went out to the camps to preach. And after the battle of Ft. Donelson he went down on the hospital boat that Gov. Yates sent there, and helped nurse and care for the poor, wounded soldiers that they brought up to Quincy to the hospitals."

"Now I must go back a little in my story to about four years before the War, in 1857."

That year

A Young Lady came to my father's home one day with a letter of introduction from another minister, back somewhere in the East.

"My mother, who was always taking care of people, asked her to stop at our house, and so she became almost a member of the family, and was with us, off and on, for five or six years—perhaps till the end of the War."

"She was a very pleasant, helpful young woman, and mother and all of us became much interested in her, and she was good to our children. She became a school teacher in some of the nearby smaller places, and would make her home with us when not teaching. So things ran along till the War began, and the soldiers filled our streets in their beautiful blue uniforms. They were much prettier than the khaki clothes that the soldiers wear now-a-days, and we

DRIVING CLUB PLANS
FOR MATINEEWill Be Held Afternoon of July 4th
—Some Fast Horses Promised

At a meeting of the directors and officers of the Jacksonville Driving club in the office of J. W. Woods Wednesday evening it was decided to hold a big booster matinee on July 4th, at the driving club park in South Jacksonville.

The Driving club was organized in 1910 by a number of Morgan county horsemen who love good horses and with the primary object in view of including more extensive breeding of good animals. The men have invested considerable money in the track and equipment and also have gone into their pockets for money to maintain it and keep it in condition.

There are many good horses in the city and county and a number are being trained at the track preparatory to going out for the racing season. All of these horses will be seen in the races of the Fourth as they will not start until after that date.

Four good races have been carded for the afternoon. In addition to Morgan county horses it is probable that some will be entered from Scott, Sangamon and Greene counties. Clarke Green is working Marie Constant, his famous trotter at the track and has promised to give the spectators an exhibition mile.

Recently a prominent army man said that it would be well for the government to foster and encourage the breeding of good harness horses.
It was the opinion of this official that the government could do this by aiding and encouraging more county fairs and race meetings. The harness horse is an ideal horse for the cavalry and in fact for all purposes except heavy artillery on account of its extraordinary intelligence. It is the belief of the directors of the Jacksonville Driving club that this is true and each is prepared to do his "bit" toward the cause.

It is expected that in addition to the four races that there will be good band music and other features that will make the afternoon a pleasant one for all who attend. The members of the association are of the opinion that its perpetuity will be of great benefit to the horse interests of the county. It is hoped that the attendance will be such on the Fourth that racing matinees may be held every two weeks for the remainder of the summer.

WASHINGTON STATE
BECOMES "BONE DRY"

Olympia, Wash., June 6.—The state of Washington, in which prohibition of the liquor traffic has prevailed since Jan. 1, 1916, now becomes
"bone dry" as a result of the stringent law passed at the last session of the legislature and signed by Governor Lister. The new law is considered to be the last word in prohibition legislation. The act prohibits the manufacture, sale, reception, possession or handling of any intoxicating liquors other than alcohol.

A unique feature of the law is a definition of the terms "jointist" and "bootlegger." A "jointist" is defined as a person who maintains a place where liquor is sold, and a "bootlegger" is one who sells liquor without any place of business. Persons convicted of either offense incur a term in the penitentiary.

CONVENTION OF POLICEMEN

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 6.—The
"masher" had best make himself scarce on the streets of Pittsburgh during the next few days if he does not want to be nabbed by the police-women. The latter is likely to be encountered at every turn, for she is here from cities and towns throughout the United States and Canada to attend a convention of the International Association of Policewomen.
The convention is to be held in connection with the National Conference of Charities and Corrections and will be devoted to discussions of the duties of the policewomen and the betterment of the service.

Two little pigs in a pasture ran,
One said, "I will get fat if I can.
The other grunted and lay in the shade,
In a hole, made by a rusty old spade.
The wise little pig is tender and sweet,

SHOULD HAVE MEDICAL OFFICER IN CABINET

Dr. Charles H. Mayo in Address Before American Medical Association Points Out Importance of Medical Service in Present War—Reviews Achievements of American Army Medical Officers

New York, June 6.—The United States should in the near future have a medical officer in the President's cabinet, in the opinion of Dr. Charles H. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn., as expressed tonight in an address before the annual meeting here of the American Medical Association, of which he is President. In his address Dr. Mayo asserted that, in the present war, the medical service has assumed an importance such as it never has before.

"The old army hospital gangrene is a thing of the past," declared Dr. Mayo. "A knowledge of the care of infections, preventing of tetanus, vaccination for smallpox and typhoid, the cause and prevention of typhus, the old camp fever, also cholera, the plague and fevers of all sorts, including the new trench fever, is a training requirement of the army medical officer, and results in the restoration to duty of a high percentage of the injured."

"We must aid in all that will elevate the general standard of, and conserve, the American citizen. Prohibition is a war measure the value of which is beyond discussion. Medicine has reached a period when alcohol is rarely employed as a drug, being displaced by better remedies. Alcohol's only place now is in the arts and sciences. National prohibition would be welcomed by the medical profession."

"The benefit to our country after the present war in having some thousands of medical officers trained in sanitation, hygiene and the prevention of disease will be incalculable. Their lax examinations of recruits and the overcrowding in trenches and underground structures tuberculosis will become a menace to our soldiers, as it is today in France."

"It is most fortunate that our army medical service is in the hands of three of our ablest men, Surgeons General Gorgas, Baileist and Abine, and we must hand the work of the general medical council under the able directorship of Dr. Franklin Martin."

"Medical men, your country needs you now and always. You must remember that the state is permanent and does not exist for the good of the individual but that the individual exists for the good of the state."

Asserting that American army medical officers stand preeminent in science Dr. Mayo reviewed some of their most notable achievements, such as the discovery of the pneumococcus by Surgeon-General Sternberg, founder of the Army Medical School and the Government Laboratories of Bacteriology and Hygiene; the discovery by Major Walter Reed, James Carroll, Jesse W. Lazear and Aristide Agramonte of a method of controlling yellow fever; and the work of Surgeon-General Gorgas in ridding Havana and the Panama Canal Zone of that disease.

For Tired Women With Aching Heads

"They help me so much and I find relief as soon as I begin taking your Policy Kidney Pills," Mrs. Frank E. Wood, Morrill, Maine, R. F. D. No. 2.
Sometimes it seems as if you can't stand the pain across your back. It is just making your life miserable and robbing you of all energy and strength. When you are constantly tired, head always aching, nerves "on edge," kidney action painful and burning, then is the time to start in at once on Policy Kidney Pills.
They strengthen the weak, ailing kidneys, improve their action, enable them to throw off the poisons that cause your trouble. Your nerves grow peaceful, sleep becomes sounder, nervous headaches disappear. As Mrs. Wood says: "I find relief as soon as I begin to take your Policy Kidney Pills." Be sure you get the genuine Policy Kidney Pills for they are purely medicinal and contain no harmful drugs.

Vegetable Compound
Removed Cause.

Fort Fairfield, Maine.—"For many months I suffered from backache caused by female troubles so I was unable to do my house work. I took treatments for it but received no help whatever. Then some of my friends asked why I did not try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and my backache soon disappeared and I felt like a different woman, and now have a healthy little baby girl and do all my house work. I will always praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. ALTON D. OAKES, Fort Fairfield, Maine.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, it is not reasonable to believe that it is an article of merit. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened and read by women only.

MANY CASES TO COME BEFORE SUPREME COURT

To Decide Whether Charles E. Munday Shall Serve Sentence of Five Years in Prison for Fraudulent Operations as Vice President of Chicago Bank—Numerous Cases Up for Rehearing

Springfield, Ill., June 6.—Whether Charles E. Munday of Litchfield, convicted of fraudulent operations as vice president of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank, of Chicago, involving other institutions in Illinois, will have to serve his sentence of five years in prison probably will be decided at the June term of the Illinois supreme court which opened today. Officers of the bank were alleged to have attempted to procure fraudulent loans and to have been engaged in other illegal practices before the institution was closed by the state bank examiner.

Munday was tried in the Grundy county circuit court and was sentenced to serve five years in state prison. The appellate court of Illinois affirmed the judgment of the trial court and the case was brought to the supreme court. Munday is now out on $10,000 bail.

Munday owned the Litchfield Mill and Elevator company at Litchfield and a string of similar concerns and was also interested in the "Lorimer-Munday banks" all of which suffered when the crash came. Another case involving the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank will be up for rehearing at the June term. It is the case, decided at the last term, in which the supreme court held the Central Trust company of Illinois liable to creditors of the defunct La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank for the difference between the $1,250,000 capital of the latter bank and the value of the assets and surplus of its predecessor, the La Salle Street National bank.

The case of the Shellbarger Elevator company against the Illinois Central Railroad company, brought from Macon county, in which the supreme court at the April term held the grain law of 1871 void, will also be up for rehearing. The effect of the supreme court's ruling was to relieve railroads of the responsibility of paying for grain lost by leakage while in transit.

A large number of other cases are on the advisement docket and others are up for rehearing.
